

Meike Garden – LadyBOND

VOCAL & PIANO

A CONCERT SEDUCTION

The musical mission, that always hits the heart!

Let yourself be whisked away into the world of Bond songs from 60 years of film history

The equipment: your piano
The weapon: your voice
The mission: Great emotions

Emotionally charged, virtuosic and with a powerful voice she presents all 25 theme songs from the Bond films of the last 60 years in her own personal way.

A musical experience of a special kind - passionate, soulful, unforgettable

Her own Bond-grand piano and a projection from film scenes round off this concert experience.

The trained musical actress is a multiple rock & pop award winner and has established herself as an interpreter on the piano with her own concert programs, whereby her program "LadyBOND" stands out with its special interpretations.

As a singer, pianist and entertainer, she is at home on stages throughout Germany and Europe. Whether at a living room concert, a dinner show or on the big stage, solo on the piano with orchestra or big band accompaniment, she provides unforgettable goosebump moments.

Meike Garden's passion is to experience great music and share emotions with her audience.

Her participation in the Eurovision Song Contest with her mother in the duo Maxi & Chris Garden laid the foundation for her musical career and was followed by numerous national and international TV and live appearances, CD releases and awards.
